PITTSBURG

PERFECT HOG FENCE,
PERFECT POULTRY FENCE,
PERFECT YARD FENCE.

The longer we sell Pittsburgh Perfect Fence the surer we are that it is the best fence ever made. The stays never slip and the electric weld seems to overcome all objections in other makes.

We cannot too strongly impress on you the fact that our heavy PERFECT POULTRY FENCE is cheaper than chicken netting, because you must use a top and a bottom board for any kind of netting, while the Perfect requires none and is stretched like any hog fence, bringing it cheaper in actual dollars and cents than any netting. It retails at 45c per rod. And will last as long as you need a fence, while netting is very short lived and a waste of money.

We are also getting in a car of ### Virginia Items.

Henry Eswine, of Butler, passed through Virginia and Park Town Thursday of last week. He talked with Aaron a few minutes.

Paul Francis, of Baxter Springs, Kan., made a short call at Aaron's Sunday. He said his father, Henry Francis, died at that place February 2nd, and was buried there. He says his sister, Annie, is in Troy, Texas. The family are all dead but Paul and Annie. To look back it seems but a short time when we worked there, when all were in the bloom of life. Henry was one of the early settlers just north of Mulberry and for many years an active prohibitionist in the west part of Bates county.

DEATH OF JAMES BECKETT.

He was born in Wheeling, Virginia, March 26, 1821, and died February 16th, at 2 a. m.; had he lived till March 26. He would have been 85 years old. When he was about one month, his parents moved to Union Town, Penn., where he grew to manhood and married. He came to Missouri in the fall of 1866, and bought a farm, where he since has lived. He was a man of strong constitution. He worked most of the time at his trade plastering; his last year was full of suffering. He raised a family of eight children—two boys and six girls. Two of the girls crossed many years ago. His wife passed on one year ago last September. The living children were all present except Jennie, who is living at Joplin, Mo. Rev. Barker, pastor of the M. E. Church, Butler, conducted the funeral at the house from the 90th Psalm. The body was laid to rest in the Virginia grave yard. We were requested to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness shown during his sickness and burial by Bally Beckett.

Miss Mamie Bouyer and Joe Whinery were married last Wednesday night at Geo. Thompson's by Rev. Baker. Miss Bouyer had made that place her home for many years. Aaron thinks she is worth more to a farmer than a car load of women that know nothing about work but they that are raised in a band box, get more praise than the young that has learned to work. Long may they live to enjoy life and the comforts of this life and come down to old age with a well spent life.

Miss King, of Nevada, and Miss Daisy Walker, of Butler, visited the Misses Bard Sunday the 11th.

Miss May Bard expects to go to St. Louis Tuesday of this week.

Aaron was asked Sunday if there were any more constables than two.

Ray McCann says he thinks he will soon have that young horse broke to the buggy.

There is some talk of changing the name of Park Town to Turkeyville.

J. W. Park is getting ready to build a new barn and house on his farm on the river.

John Hensley shipped stock to Kansas City Thursday.

Preaching at the Christian Church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and at night.

Miss Vena Biggs, of Hume, visited her uncle, George, and aunt, Mrs. Hattie Thompson last week and took in the wedding of Miss Bouyer and Mr. Whinery last Wednesday.

The meeting Monday afternoon was well attended at McFadden's hall. George B. Ellis, secretary of the Board of Agriculture, sent his speakers, Mr. McLaughlin and R. H. Hyslop, graduates of Columbia College, made short talks on soil and grain raising. The farmers manifested an interest in the talk. At night good crowd, and it is said they had a good talk. They called for an organization of a Farmers' Institute, but no organization. One thing they did not do that was to talk to the children. We understand they will talk to the children at Grand View school Friday afternoon and night. This is a funny world.

Frank Satterlee and Mary Foster were married Sunday night by Judge Hockett, of Virginia. We understand they will make Fort Scott their home. Mr. Foster has two Satterlees for sons-in-law.

The Virginia Cemetery Association is making great efforts to keep the cemetery in a good condition, and will have use for a large amount of money. It finds itself unable to do the work. The association would be glad for those represented to respond at their earliest convenience that we may begin work. For desired information address, Mrs. T. S. Harper, corresponding secretary, Amoret, Mo., No. 1.

Will McKibben, tax collector, will be at Virginia Friday and at Butler Saturday of this week, and this will be the last call to pay tax. AARON.

Wanted, Oats.

Farmers having red Texas oats for sale, from the seed we shipped in last spring, bring samples at once. We want 5,000 bushels and will give premium over shipping price, for bright unmixt lot.

South of Spruce Items.

Stephenson and Oliver shipped hogs Monday.

The valentine party at Mr. Grigg's Wednesday night was well attended, all report a gay time.

News of the death of Mr. Pratt, of Appleton City reached our community Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ritchey made a business trip to Appleton City Friday.

Albert Young shipped cattle Monday.

Misses Hattie Shillinger and Stella Ritchey and John Myster visited at Mr. Burch's Sunday.

The pie supper and pound party at Jake Fry's was a decided success. In spite of the comic valentines they received all went away reporting a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Erhart called on Mrs. Shillinger Sunday eve.

Mr. Henry Ritchey and family visited at Martin Myster's Sunday eve.

Mr. Henry Ritchey and family visited at Martin Myster's Sunday eve.

A number of people of this vicinity are preparing to move the first of March.

While rolling logs at the saw mill Monday last Walter Myster got his finger badly mashed. Dr. Colson dressed his finger.

It is reported that the negro show at Spruce is grand. The crew will soon leave for Johnstown where they will entertain the people there for a few days.

Beatie Shillinger who has been sick for the past five weeks is slowly improving.

Peru Items.

L. W. and Dan Smith went to Coffeaville, Kas., to see their brother Will, and to look at the country.

Bob Lyle sold his yearling steers to Girken and Hart and bought heifers of Frazee.

T. J. Booth has rented the Charley Dane place again this year and will not have to move. The roads are in a bad condition for hauling and moving.

Born, to the wife of M. M. Carroll, Sunday morning, the 18th, a girl.

Mrs. Wil Jackson has been very sick, but was better the last we heard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers have gone on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Frank Gunn, of Grainfield, Kas., and to take a look at the wonderful wheat country.

Frank Blough has rented the Alex Morris place for this year. Alex will move near Fulton, Mo. UNCLE ABB.

Notice.

GEORGE WASHINGTON.

What name so dear to every patriotic American. We honor his memory this week on the anniversary of his birthday. A memory loved and revered by every loyal citizen. Long may the stars and stripes emblem of the Liberty he won for us, wave over a free and happy people and may the spirit of truth that animated him be ours also in business matters. Until the next anniversary, we will try to be—
First in Quality, First in Peace and First in the Hearts of our Customers.
